We're all poets!

We recently had a visit from critically acclaimed children's poet, James Carter. James is a prize winning poet, guitarist and educational writer. During his visit, each Class from Reception to Year 5 had a workshop with James where he shared writing tips and the wide range of poetry styles.

Below is a small selection of the many creative poems written by our children.

Reception, Years 1 & 2

The wonderful world of boats

Blue boats
Green boats
Floating on the sea boats

Black boats
Pink boats
Hope that they don't sink boats

Sail boats
Row boats
Who knows where they'll go boats

Big boats
Little boats
On a lake or river boats

Paddle boats
Speed boats
Built with wood or metal boats

Acrostic

Midline acrostic

Free verse

Limerick

Rhyme

Year 3

Villa builders
Country invaders
Great soldiers
Rabbit importers
Bath lovers
Bad haters
Apple givers
Money takers
Munching eaters
Trouble makers
England dwellers
Nasty fellows

We travelled far
Over land and oceans
We were of course
The rotten romans

By Humayd

POETRY continued

Year 4

Vikings

Vikings lived in Scandinavia, Norway, Denmark and Sweden

They kept bees outside to get honey

The main country was Denmark

Long boats had sails and oars

Viking merchants sailed east

They invaded Germany and Iceland

Viking raiders headed South

By James

Year 4

Weapon lovers

Saxon haters

Death givers

Head takers

Norse dwellers

Master protectors

Sword carriers

Axe choppers

Skull splitters

Marching invaders

Village destroyers

Over the oceans we would go.

We are the Vikings did you know?

By Sam

Year 5

Stars

are not what they seem...

Not shimmery halos of the moon

Not animals in the sky

Not shimmery planets floating in a never ending abyss

Not goddesses looking down at you.

Stars are stars.

By Robert

Year 5

Saturn

is not what it seems...

Not an everlasting misty marble floating
in the sky

Not gazing eyes of guardian angels

Not a bright white ocean waving above
the clouds

Not a golden sand beach with the sound of the calming sea.

Saturn is Saturn

WORLD BOOK DAY 2020—THURSDAY 5TH MARCH

Following the success of last year's World Book Day, we will be celebrating this again as a school on Thursday 5th March. For this occasion, we would like children to dress as a word and we will complete a 'vocabulary parade' on the school playground at 9.05am that morning to showcase our wonderful costumes. We hope that you will be able to join us for this occasion.

Below, there are some examples of what you could wear/create for this day. You can be as creative as possible. If you would like any further ideas, please search 'vocabulary parade' online. KS2 children might like to dress as one of the words from the Year 3/4 or Year 5/6 National Curriculum spelling lists!
