27th January 2017

Dear Parents, Carers,

Unfortunately, the boiler at St Michael's has broken down today and we are in the process of arranging emergency heating to keep the school open on Monday. Although the weather promises to be warmer next week please ensure the children are dressed appropriately as the school could be a little chilly in the corridors and hall.

Although we are making every effort to open school on Monday, in the event the heaters do not arrive on time and the temperature drops unexpectedly on Monday morning, we will need to close the school. In which case, we will contact families as early as possible on Monday. For this reason, it would be advisable for you to have a back- up plan in place for collecting your child/ren from school.

We will keep you posted on any further developments.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

On a happier note- the children have enjoyed an Aladdin pantomime at school this afternoon. I'm sure they will have lots to say about it. A genie to fix the boiler would be very welcome today!

Kind regards

Mrs Anderton
