NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents, Carers

January can make even the most energetic of us feel a little down hearted, especially on those foggy mornings when the weather turns colder, and we haven't allowed time to defrost the windscreen before we set off to start the day! However, at St Michael's, we have two important events scheduled and guaranteed to brighten your day.

On January 27th, we are welcoming Scott back to St Michael's to lead all the children in a 'Dancing Around the World' programme. So many of our children demonstrated their talent and passion for dance during Scott's visit in December we felt compelled to take up his offer of a workshop this month.

Families are invited to watch a performance involving their children at the following times:

Reception and KS1: Friday January 31st 9.15-9.45am

KS2: Friday January 31st 2.45-3.15pm

FOR SAFETY REASONS ADMISSION TO BOTH SHOWS IS LIMITED TO 1 FAMILY MEMBER.

The cost of admission is £3, payable on the door.

The following week, on the Monday, the Ising pop team will be arriving at St Michael's, led by Jake. As mentioned, in the previous newsletter, we are still hoping to find accommodation for Jake for 4 nights. Please contact the office if you can help.

The concert in St Michael's Of All Angel's Church, will take place at 2pm on Friday February 7th 2020. All welcome.

As detailed in a previous letter, the children of parents attending the concert can be dismissed by the class teacher at the Church. All other children will be escorted by staff back to school for dismissal as usual.

Please call the school office or speak to Mrs Fernandes if you have any queries or concerns.

As always, thank you for your support.

Kindest regards,

L Anderton
Headteacher
